

Conveners:

Pokorný R., Department of Silviculture, Faculty of Forestry and Wood Technology Mendel University in Brno, Czech Republic

Title:

Tree and forest growth across Carpathians - from past to future

Session description:

The session will be focused on the past, current and future growth of trees and forest stands in the Carpathian region. Historical land use, gradient and differences of site conditions, tree species composition of forests, applied currently silvicultural systems and predictions for future forest management including adaptation to global climate change will be discussed.